Coach's Comment

For the first time in the history of the club, the Strikers are within two matches of (a.) contesting
the playoffs and (b.)
seeking a first ever Championship.

Bruce Stowell

For a team in only its third year of existence, a Championship win at such an early stage of the club's history, would no doubt be a record for any Queensland sporting team in any code.

From a coaching and playing perspective, this is a fantastic achievement in itself, as at the end of the season we will have come through a record 33 matches, 17 of which will have been played interstate, including four trips to Adelaide.

This number of interstate matches is by far in excess of any other team in the Ericsson Cup and it is a credit to all concerned that these travel hurdles have been overcome.

The strength of the squad this season has certainly been in the 19 players, in that all have played their parts in ensuring a highly successful season.

With the horrific number of injuries we have had to overcome, some of which have been long-term injuries to some quality players, the dogged determination of this club to succeed, has been something we can all be very proud of.

The success that we have had all season is also a credit to the crowd support we have received at Suncorp Stadium, which has been quite outstanding.

A win tonight will guarantee our place in the top six and will open the door for next week's game to be a possible premiership decider. Hopefully our supporters will see it in their way to travel with the side in these final matches and join us in our quest to be the 1995/96 Ericsson Cup Champions. □

On the brink of greatness

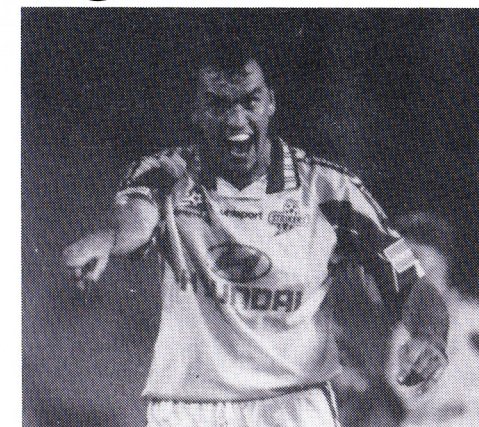

Queensland's premier soccer team, the Hyundai Strikers, are poised to make Queensland soccer history as the Ericsson Cup reaches fever pitch.

The side looks certain to become the first team from Queensland to make the finals of the Ericsson Cup and could even take it one step further by being minor premiers.

Two wins for the Queenslanders last week have put the side in outright third spot on the ladder, just two points shy of both Marconi Fairfield and UTS Olympic, with only two rounds remaining.

A minor premiership crown hinges on the last two rounds of the competition, with the Strikers needing to win their last two matches and sweating on leaders Marconi to drop one of their tough games against either Sydney United or West Adelaide.

A win against South Melbourne tonight

Alan Hunter displays the determination that the whole team will have for tonight and the remaining games will assure the Strikers of an historic first-time finals berth and at the very least put them into a position where they can enter the top two the following week, to earn the opportunity to play for the right to host the Grand Final next month.

But neither the players nor coach Bruce Stowell are getting carried away with top two or minor premiership aspirations just yet.

"Obviously a top two spot is now within our grasp and we could even finish up as the minor premiers if we win our remaining matches," Stowell said.

"Our primary concern though is to win tonight and cement our position in the top six.

"After the weekend's matches I will re-evaluate the situation and look at what we must do for the final round against Olympic."

Strikers supporters should see defender Glenn Gwynne back in action at home for the first time since he broke his foot in the first round of the competition.

South Melbourne will be without playmaker Paul Trimboli and defender Kevin Muscat, who were both called into the Socceroos squad to face Chile in Santiago.

A Grand Final in Brisbane? ...I'd like to see that!

With the Strikers currently in outright third on the table and just two rounds of the Ericsson Cup remaining, the side is on the verge of taking part in its first ever finals series, but more importantly has the opportunity to secure the right to play-off to see who will host the Grand Final in May.

The team is just two points away from leaders Marconi Fairfield and UTS Olympic and can at the very least move into the top two if they win their last two matches.

Considering the tough run home Marconi has, with matches against fringe finals contenders Sydney United and West Adelaide, the possibility of a minor premiership is also not out of the question.

Strikers players are urging supporters to get behind them and travel to Sydney for next Sunday's vital final round against UTS Olympic at Leichhardt Oval.

This match looks likely to decide which sides will finish in the top two.

History has shown the value of having fervent Strikers supporters spurring the team on during away matches.

The three supporters trips organised in the last two seasons have all resulted in Strikers wins. Now more than ever, the Strikers need you there, in person roaring your lungs out, to make history.

There is currently a $169 airfare to Sydney which you can obtain provided you book a week in advance, and although we can not predict the dates of the away finals matches, this is a great boon to consider.

Global Sports Tours, a faithful sponsor of the Strikers, can help supporters with accommodation, match tickets, airfares, buses, trains and rental cars. To find out more, contact Mandy at Global Sports Tours on 3844 4966 or 1800 653 231, or call Pat or Carmelina at the Strikers on 3217 6322.

If your budget is limited like mine, you could take more economical transport or even car pool with friends and other supporters. The Strikers are also investigating the chartering of buses for the finals series and would like to hear from those interested.

In the meantime, first thing's first. Let's all get to Olympic next weekend and roar the lads into the top two and on to victory. A Grand Final in Brisbane... I'd luuvv to see that!

Behind the Strikers scenes - The Assistant Trainer

Rounding off this season's Behind the Scenes features is the quietly spoken Stan Skubis, a man more intent on ensuring the team is in top physical condition and performing well on the park, then on seeking the spotlight.

Strikers' Assistant Trainer Stan Skubis could not be happier... he has a great job, has recently married and bought a house, and is part of what he considers to be the most professional sports medicine set up in any soccer club throughout Australia.

After playing for Oxley United in the local competition for six years, Skubis considered coaching as an option.

"It didn't take long before I realised I was going to make a terrible coach, but I wanted to remain involved in the sport," Skubis said.

"It intrigued me how trainers got players who appeared to have bad injuries back on the park with just a bit of tape and some rubbing oil, so I decided to follow up on this and become involved that way."

Involved in sports medicine for seven years now, Skubis joined the Strikers when the club formed three years ago, at the insistence of trainer Graham Kinsela.

The two shared a common interest in sports medicine and rehabilitation and worked together with Sports Medicine Australia at a number of events.

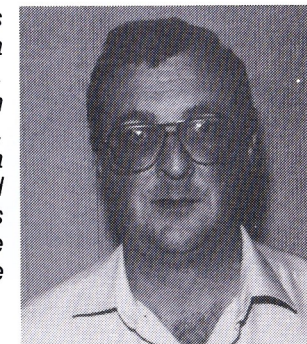

The likeable 40 year old is a Level II Sports Trainer with Sports Medicine Australia, which is the highest level a trainer can hold at this stage.

He believes this year has been his most rewarding to date with the Strikers.

"This year has been very satisfying, as the club has really come of age," Skubis said.

"It's great dealing with top players like Frank (Farina) and Jason (Polak), the side is Stan Skubis has had a great year... gotten married, bought a house and the Strikers have come of age doing well, we're getting much bigger crowds to our matches, and the move to Suncorp Stadium has been fantastic."

Skubis cited the Strikers 7-1 thrashing of Adelaide City earlier this year as his biggest highlight of the season. □

Grand Final brought forward

Soccer Australia recently announced the restructuring of the Ericsson Cup Top Six Championship Series, which will now see the Ericsson Cup Grand Final played on Sunday 26 May 1996, two weeks earlier than its original date of June 9.

The change was brought about due to the scheduling by FIFA of the Coca-Cola Olyroos Olympic qualifiers to be played on Sunday 26 May (away) and Sunday 2 June (home).

The Coca-Cola Olyroos will play the second placed team from CONCACAF (North/Central America) for a place in the Atlanta Olympics.

The rescheduling of the finals means the Strikers could lose the services of Clint Bolton and Sean Cranney after the May 12 match.

The revised Ericsson Cup Top Six Championship Series draw is as follows:

Week ending Sunday May 5

First leg Preliminary Semi Final	3rd v 5th
First leg Preliminary Semi Final	4th v 6th
First leg Major Semi Final	1st v 2nd

Week ending Sunday May 12

Second leg Elimination Semi Final	3rd v 5th
Second leg Elimination Semi Final	4th v 6th
Second leg Major Semi Final	1st v 2nd

Wednesday May 15

Minor Semi Final

Week ending Sunday May 19

The nation's capital sent their best and for the first half things were grim, but then... Steve Jackson bent over backwards, Brad Ditton went under cover on Castro, Chris Zoricich sized things up and Mark Battistin was on the ball throughout. Troy Cranney charged into top gear and slammed home the winner, his first of the season, after Polak's gem of a free kick. The crowd rejoiced in a 2-0 win.

Shades of BROWN...

QAS coach Greg Brown is currently in Europe studying the latest youth development and coaching techniques at a number of top clubs. In his absence, assistant coach Mike Mulvey has given his views.

Mike Mulvey

Tonight's match is our last home game of the season and the QAS players along with Greg Brown and myself would like to thank the supporters for their continued support.

We hope you have been entertained even though the results may not have always been favourable.

The QAS program is developmental and geared toward promoting Queensland's best young players.

This season has seen Matt Bell, Wayne Knipe and Kasey Wehrmann offered traineeships with the Brisbane Strikers, and the same three boys are also still involved with the Australian Youth team.

We also have a number of players vying for places at the Australian Joeys training camp at an as yet specified date.

One of these players, Andrew Packer, has just spent five days at the Institute of Sport in Canberra.

Training with quality players has improved the boys' whole games and as we've seen when the Academy players have spent time with the Strikers squad and then returned to play with the QAS, they have invariably been sharper and more confident.

We at the QAS will endeavour to continue this trend and improve it over the coming seasons. □

QAS Squad

NEWS

Following this afternoon's match against Parramatta, the QAS will have played a total of 13 matches in just six weeks, in what has been a very hectic schedule forced by bad weather earlier in the season.

Most weekends have seen double headers played and assistant coach Mike Mulvey believes the tough schedule has taken its toll on the players.

"These young lads love to play the game but the quality of their games has suffered under these demands," Mulvey said.

"However all of the boys have handled the situation very well and on the whole have produced quality, entertaining football."

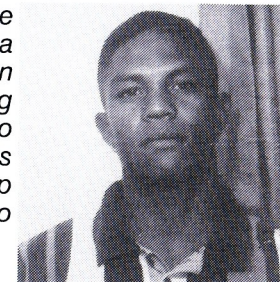

Last week the boys went down 2-0 in a scrappy encounter with the ACT Academy but bounced back on the Friday to thump Wollongong down at Brandon Park 5-2.

Wayne Knipe proved to be the star of the Wollongong match scoring two goals and setting up another two.

Kasey Wehrmann was also in the goals for the Academy, knocking two past Wollongong's keeper, with Jamie Lowndes scoring the other goal.

The win has kept the QAS in with a slim hope of making the finals of the Les Scheinflug Cup. □

Wayne Knipe proved to be a handful down in Wollongong scoring two superb goals and setting up another two

At this stage the Academy must win their remaining matches and rely on the ACT Academy to drop a game if they are to sneak into the finals.

Strike Squad NEWS

Fairer Sex

everyone enjoying themselves, it is not really a good idea to use toilet rolls to throw either into the crowd or onto the field. As the game progressed, a large ball of paper was made and for some reason ended up on the field where it had to be confiscated until the game had finished. Although no harm was done, a little bit more common sense needs to be shown and those people involved should take note that if anything is thrown onto the pitch the culprit can and will be ejected from the ground. This is obviously the last thing we want, so please, let's all take care.

Finals Berth Beckons

Time for another reminder about the upcoming finals series. We all need to be in fine voice and as colourful as possible during the upcoming finals games. As you are all probably aware there will be one game here at Suncorp Stadium and the media really need to get some great shots of the Strike Squad to show on television if we are to gather the fringe support for any further games (ie the FINAL) at Suncorp Stadium. As previously mentioned in this column, I hope we can all come up with new and exciting ways to show our support and continue to grow in numbers. Colourful wigs, face paint, garish clothing (a la Wade), or any other style of promotion of the colours or the name of the team is always welcome. Don't forget a trip away to the finals and even to next week's final round against UTS Olympic, is also on the cards. Unfortunately we will not know the date or destination of the finals matches until the regular season finishes and the first round of home and away games have been allocated. Remember you could be part of history by travelling to the away finals game of the first Queensland team to win the Ericsson Cup. □

□ Already the last home game of the regular season... it seems like yesterday I was struggling to write about something for the first edition of Eye On Strikers. Averaging around three goals every game at home, you shouldn't be complaining about our inaugural season at Suncorp Stadium. Hope you have all enjoyed the dribble and we look forward to your support during the finals.

□ Which Brisbane Strikers player was left to fend for himself over Easter, including having to do the washing? With our game on Easter Saturday against Adelaide City and another on Monday against Canberra Cosmos, this meant our Strikers dress shirts had to be washed. Our blue and white shirt was thrown in with chocolate brown denim jeans, naturally enough? Shock horror the colours ran, turning the blue and white shirt into a different shade of brown and blue. No problem... go buy some bleach! Soaked the shirts for 15 minutes, now they are brilliant white and blotchy purple! The player was not impressed and naturally blamed the girlfriend for going away.

□ My friend purchased a house recently but he couldn't afford to pay the exorcist's fee. The house was repossessed!

□ News of the week comes from Los Angeles where Melrose Place star Andrew "Billy" Shue has signed a contract with Major Soccer League (MSL) team Los Angeles Galaxy. This is the first year of the MSL and the Americans are the best at marketing the game, so why not involve a soapie star? "Billy" played 25 minutes in the Galaxy's 2-1 win. Girls, relax, Billy won't be leaving Melrose just yet!

□ The biggest lie... "The game's almost over dear. I'll be there in a minute."

□ Best wishes from us all to Chris Zoricich and Jo Farthing, who tomorrow tie the knot. However the honeymoon may have to be put on hold due to a finals series that awaits us - but Jo I'm sure Chris is worth waiting for.

□ And finally, I know all the boys, would be stoked if a bunch of you rather vocal supporters were to turn up at Olympic's ground next week. Sure it's a big ask, but the more the merrier on this important occasion and what a shock my old side would receive to see Thor leading an army of Strikers fans through the gates of Leichhardt Oval. Alldai, everydai!

Win a Hyundai Excel Sprint

Strikers' Supporters have the chance to win a new Hyundai Excel Sprint courtesy of Leo Muller Hyundai.

Just read The Courier-Mail and fill out the Strikers' coupon appearing in The Courier-Mail on the day of each Strikers' home match. Cut the coupon out and put it in the barrel at the entrance gate on match day. Three names will be drawn to compete in a half-time shoot-out, with each contestant receiving a Strikers supporters pack.

The winner of the shoot-out will also receive a genuine Strikers playing shirt and then attempt a 25 yard kick to put the ball through a hole in either top corner of the goal. If the kick is successful and that lucky contestant is the only person to hit the target all season, then he or she will win a fabulous Hyundai Excel Sprint motor vehicle from Leo

MULLERAUTOMOTIVE

Muller Hyundai at Kedron and Albion.

If more than one person puts the ball through the corner holes during the season, then a penalty shoot-out at the season's end will determine who drives away with the brand new Hyundai Excel Sprint.

If either of the contestants' two kicks miss the major prize target but hit a secondary wooden target inside the goals, the contestant will win a return flight for two to Sydney flying Ansett. □
